TO ELECT OFFICERS.

Clarksburg lodge No. 39 of the Knights of Pythias will elect officers to serve for the ensuing six months at the business meeting to be held Thursday night. As previously announced, the lodge will have a turkey supper after the business meeting.

FATHER IS FINED.

Jacob Keller, of Alta Vista, was fined $2 and costs Tuesday evening by Justice G. H. Gordon for failing to send his son, Charles, to the public school there. He paid the amount and was released. The charge was preferred by C. L. Ford, truant officer of the Clarksburg Independent school district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch are here from Smithfield. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reed are here from Morgantown. Jacob Cottrill, of Salem, is a Traders hotel guest.

MT. CLARE, Nov. 23.—The Fuel City Oil and Gas Company drilled in its well on the J. W. Matheny farm Sunday evening, and it has a fair gaser.

Big material is now being hauled on the ground at the two new locations on the Fairmont Coal Company's property, a short distance north of the depot.

The contractor for the Hope Gas Company, who has been drilling on the farm of the Holden heirs for several months, has met with much hard luck by breakage and otherwise, which has detained him very much, but if no more mishaps occur the well will come in this week. The Hope Gas Company is still working a large force south of here laying connecting lines from the new wells to their main lines, and this vicinity is well oiled with the ridges over their buried lines which very much resembles the passways of the ground moles in a wheat field after the melting of a winter's snow.

C. W. Davidson, a director in the People's Telephone System, with Mr. Jenkins, a lineman, is in this vicinity looking after some repairs in the lines and hopes to have the system in a good serviceable condition in a few days.

A force of painters came on Monday morning to put on the finishing touches of the new school house. The seats and desks are promised to be here early this week, and the house may be ready for the opening of the school next Monday, perhaps.

A secret service man was seen in our town one day last week, who was looking after some violators of the law. He admitted having under surveillance some proprietors of slot machines and alleged vendors of cigarettes without regard to the law against selling to minors; also the violation of the Sunday laws. We hope this man will not have occasion to visit our town again.

Mrs. Myrtle Stout, of Washington, Pa., returned to her father's house on Stoneport last Friday. Rumor has it that she and her husband have dissolved partnership and she will remain with her parents here.

Little Troy, son of E. B. Morris, of Tin Plate, who had the misfortune to fall and break his collar bone while at play at school last week, is spending a few days with his grandparents here.

C. S. Holden, a gas magnate, of Buckhannon, spends much of his time here looking after his gas interests.

A courting epidemic has broken out among the "wee" young boys and lasses of our town, which is proving disastrous to our Sunday schools and other religious services.

The Willing Workers will give a bazaar, oyster supper, and dollar social at the Haselden Hall Friday evening, Nov. 25, for the benefit of the Methodist Protestant church. Everybody is invited to come and bring all their friends.
